National Guard Drowns During Lake Exercises

Thomas Rohoff, 23, from Clarkston, died from drowning Saturday morning, August 2nd, during National Guard training exercises at Howes Lake, west of Grayling. The exercise involved jumping from a low-flying military helicopter into the lake.

Rohoff was discovered missing after the exercise and Saturday evening the Crawford County Sheriff Dept. was notified. Sheriff Dept. divers started an extensive search and the body was recovered Sunday about 11:22 a.m. in about seven feet of water. An autopsy performed Sunday indicated death was caused by drowning, the sheriff department reported. Camp Grayling personnel, a DNR officer, and the Red Cross Disaster team assisted the sheriff dept. divers in the search.

Captain Michael Johnson, from the Dept. of Military Affairs in Lansing, said the military is conducting an internal investigation of the accident and the heli-casting exercises that morning. Johnson said normally the heli-casting is not a dangerous exercise. A total of 70 guards were jumping Saturday morning and no incidents were reported up to the time of the fatality. Afterwards, a total of 17 guards were reported injured during the heli-casting. Johnson said the weather was not bad Saturday and the military is trying to reconstruct the entire sequence of events that morning.

Rohoff was a qualified paratrooper and a tree-year veteran of the 82nd Airborne Division from Ft. Bragg, North Carolina. Rohoff was jumping into the lake for the second time that morning when the accident occurred. A life vest found on the body was not inflated. Rings on the vest must be pulled to inflate the life vest.

$4 Million Construction Begins at Camp Lehman

Construction tabbed at more than $4 million is underway at Camp Lehman, according to camp supervisor Duane Cory.

Footings are being poured for three 80-man barracks with individual rooms. A 40 by 100-foot multi-purpose room will also be added to the facility and a new kitchen will be built.

Other improvements include a paved road, sidewalks, and a security fence.

The new facilities should be in use by mid-December, Cory said.

Lehman will hold up to 400 prisoners when the expansion is finished, he said, and the camp will remain a minimum security Michigan Department of Corrections facility.

Cory said the expansion should increase the number of staff at Lehman from 25 earlier this year to about 75 persons. Some of the new jobs will be available for local persons. To apply, persons need to get on the civil service register. The MESC office in Grayling can provide assistance for job applicants.

Camp Lehman is located just north of Hartwick Pines and has been located in that area for 35 years.

Public Hearing Scheduled For DeWard Tract Plan

A public hearing on the proposed plan for the DeWard Tract will be held Monday, August 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the basement of the Crawford County Courthouse. The meeting will be conducted by the DNR and copies of the plan may be obtained from Robert Borak, regional forest manager at DNR Region II headquarters in Roscommon.

The new plan calls for using gates, berms, fences, or tree plantings to help close certain roads. Many visitors to the DeWard area respected the posts and signs used in the past to close roads, but the extra measures will help guarantee closure of the roads.

The new plan also calls for closing of some trails close to the river. New parking areas are planned to encourage the closing of these trails.

A wooden fence will be erected and maintained on the east side of the Manistee River where the Great Lakes Transmission line crosses the river, if the plan is approved. The DNR feels this will prevent vehicles from fording the river. This pipeline will also be blocked going north at the east-west pipeline crossing and it will be gated where roads cross it.

The DeWard Tract is a 4,720 acre block of land located around the county corner common to Antrim, Crawford, Kalkaska and Otsego counties with acreage divided as follows: Antrim (140), Crawford (2,470), Kalkaska (810), and Otsego (130). Private ownership is less than 500 acres and the rest is state forest land.

It is a long, narrow parcel measuring seven miles in a north-south direction with its width varying from one to one and one-half miles.

The Manistee River, a popular brown trout fishing stream, flows through it and receives modest recreational canoeing use with at least one commercial canoe livery using it on a regular basis. Recreational pursuits in the Tract, other than fishing and canoeing, include hunting, camping, and berry and mushroom picking.

The DeWard Tract takes its name from the lumbering Village of DeWard which was established around 1900 to process one of the last remaining stands of virgin white pine in Michigan. One of the largest sawmills in the United States was located there until 1912 when it was dismantled and moved. Twenty years later, all of the 800 who were listed as 1912 residents had left the area. Building foundations and an old railroad grade are all that remain to mark the location of the Village.

The Area received no special management until 1980 when boundaries were set and a Director's Order issued to control the indiscriminate use therein by off-road vehicles (ORV's). Earlier oil and gas exploration and development in and near the Tract resulted in the building of additional roads and pipelines in it resulting in increased ORV activity. Consequently, the banks of certain stretches of the Manistee were being eroded into the river, especially at the gas pipeline crossing.

The river here is immediately below its headwaters and contains most of the Manistee's good trout spawning habitat; thereby greatly influencing trout populations in the lower sections of the River. This erosion was hurting spawning habitat and trout cover (filling deep holes).

These stream banks are now on their way to becoming stabilized mainly because of the discontinued use of them by ORV's. The Director's Order helped achieve this as well as a vigorous stream bank rehabilitation project through the cooperative efforts of Trout Unlimited, Michigan Wildlife Habitat Foundation, and the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

Ruddy wins the Republican nomination for district 5 commissioner and Haight wins the Republican nomination for district 3 commissioner in the November election. Haight will face Andie Neilson who received 42 votes to win the Democratic nomination.

In the Governor races for nomination, Crawford County totals were 383 votes for Chrysler, 325 for Lucas, 118 for Engler, and 79 for Murphy on the Republican side. On the Democratic side, Blanchard received 347 votes and Wilson received 25 votes.

In the 10th district U.S. representative race Albosta had 205 votes and Yoder 32 votes on the Democratic side. Schuette received 705 votes on the Republican side.

In the 11th district U.S. representative race, Anderson received 51 votes and Johnson 22 on the Democratic side. On the Republican side Davis received 129 votes.

In the 36th district state senator voting, Elliott received 181 votes and Olesnavage received 77 votes on the Democratic side. On the Republican side Binsfeld received 823 votes.

In the 103rd state representative voting, Addington received 265 votes on the Democratic side and Ostling received 766 votes on the Republican side.

All totals are unofficial pending review by the Crawford County Board of Canvassers.

Extra Police Work Nabs B&E Suspect

Extra police work paid off in the capture of a Lake Margrethe burglar suspect last Wednesday.

Robert Shafer, 18, from Texas, has been charged with seven counts of breaking and entering occupied buildings and bond has been set at $10,000 for each count.

All of the items stolen in seven break-ins (totalling about $500 in value) have been recovered. Approximately $130 in cash taken was not recovered.

Shafer was arrested last Wednesday by sheriff deputy Jeff Anthony and Detective Charles Haas culminating an investigation that involved the sheriff dept., Grayling City Police, and Crawford County K-9 unit.

Extra work by Anthony and Haas on the investigation helped crack the case.

After several break-ins were reported along Florida Place on Lake Margrethe and two places on M-72 on the east side where it meets the lake, Anthony and Haas arranged with a homeowner in the area to spend the night inside a residence waiting for the thief. The burglar had been breaking into only occupied homes in the area. The thief was breaking in and stealing items while the residents slept early in the morning between 1 a.m. and 6 a.m.

In five places, the thief had been successful, even stealing money and items from bedrooms where residents were sleeping. At two places, residents woke up and scared the burglar away.

Although Anthony and Haas weren't lucky enough to have the burglar try to break into the place they stayed at, they kept putting extra hours on the case — even putting in their own time.

The next night, after receiving a tip, Anthony and Haas spent the entire night in the woods watching a suspect who was camping out in his car in the area.

The next day, Haas discovered the suspect tried to cash a crisp $50 bill in town (one was stolen in a break-in). Meanwhile, at the lake, Anthony found a stolen lighter and stolen television-radio near the suspect's car. The two pieces of evidence were enough to obtain a warrant and when Anthony and Haas arrested the suspect, they found most of the stolen items in his car.

A charge of breaking and entering an occupied building has a maximum sentence of 15 years.

4th Annual County Fair Opens Aug. 6-9 at New Site

It was a lot of hard work completed in a few short weeks, but they did it.

The 4th annual Crawford County Fair opens Wednesday at a new site with two new buildings and a stage.

All county residents and visitors to the area are invited out to the new fairgrounds this week located near the intersection of M-93 and Old 27.

The Fair will be held Wednesday through Saturday with fair exhibits, a carnival and midway, arts and crafts, and a national guard exhibit on display all four days.

Exhibits are being judged Wednesday morning and will be on display after noon Wednesday.

Admission to the Fair is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children 6 to 12 years old. There is no fee for parking. No parking will be allowed on Old 27. Visitors must pull into the new fairgrounds and park in the open field.

Arts and crafts exhibitors are invited to set up booths at the fair. There is no charge for space, but all persons must pay the $1 admission fee.

Special events for the Fair are a tug-of-war Saturday at 3 p.m. over a mud pit involving the finest from Spikes and the Sawmill.

Games for children will also be held Saturday at 10 a.m. A magic show is scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

A skydiver will jump at the fairgrounds Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at 7 p.m. He will jump Sunday at 4 p.m. at the Crawford County Car Show.

The AuSable River Band from Frederic will highlight Friday's events playing from 8 to 12 midnight. At 7:30 p.m. Friday there will be a chili contest. At 9 p.m. there will be a lip sync contest.

From Our Corner...

Just in case you are interested...

The ol' fella has run into one more of those blank Sundays whereby I'm supposed to bring you all the wisdom of a country editor without stepping on too many toes...

Now if this was Detroit, and we were a columnist for the Free Press or News we probably could come up with something about the Mayor, such as parking in any place he pleases, or the council fighting among themselves...or the commissioners wanting to move Tiger stadium out in the hinterlands...when they have a place right now...

But then, Grayling is not Detroit...we are a peaceful little hamlet settled in the north country where it seems like no one wants to ruffle the feathers on anything that may disrupt the tranquility of our sleepy hollow...

We haven't heard of any complaints of our Mayor taking advantage of his exalted position in the city, nor the council taking advantage of free travel and food on the city's budget...

We have heard lately that our commissioners, how many, I don't know, knew of the facts surrounding the closing of the museum during the Fourth, for reasons I understand were brought to their attention earlier on the possible closing by the state due to certain codes pertaining to the handicapped...

I can appreciate the concern of those who brought this to the attention of some officials...but, in no way can we believe that the county would be forced to tear a historical depot built in probably in the late 1800's or early 1900's apart just to widen doors and put in an elevator to the second floor...

From where I sit, the whole dang thing has been a mess...had the anonymous letter writer come out and sought help on his thinking, I'm sure the Avalanche and others would have helped in any way it could...

An idle thought...Gee, I'm glad our garbage pickups didn't go on strike, like those in Detroit...we have enough rats running around town at night, as it is...

Just in case you were not one of those who ran into our bride during her rounds of shopping this past weekend we'd like to have you know she had company...our Buckeye family is spending a week with us before going on to Traverse City for the girls great grandmother Mrs. Kalahar's 92nd birthday this coming Sunday...

Toni, T.J., Stefany and the black pony arrived last Wednesday, and John will join the family in T.C., as he is working in Kentucky right now...

It's nice to see all of our gals, but, when they leave and I take a look at the checkbook, I have to wonder how many weeks I could afford...

Right now as I look out the window, there is a young couple walking all around the caboose and I'm sure he has taken up a roll of film of the surroundings...another couple just arrived...

That should tell a little bit of the interest that this building will bring in the future, and this is late Sunday afternoon and the museum is closed, a family of five just left...

Whatever is takes, everyone, should in their small way apply the energy to keep the depot and caboose as it was in its original state...and this corner will do whatever is asked within the law...

Another idle thought...we only ran for an elected office once in our life, that for council, after reading part of the Free Press this morning we were thinking...what better way is there to find out if you have any skeletons in your closet than to run for governor, or president, or congress, or senate, or try to be named to the supreme court...if we weren't so old, I'd like to try it, just to find out the stock I came from...

That's it, we will tell T.J. and Stefany good-night at home, so to Amber pleasant dreams...hey boss! 12 to go...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Jehovah Our Salvation

Only the Lord Jesus Christ, the Jehovah of the Bible can save a soul. "And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD, (Jehovah) shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD (Jehovah) hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD (Jehovah) shall call." (Joel 2:32).

This Old Testament teaching is fulfilled in Romans 10:9, 10: "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

The great apostle Peter assured us that there is no other person who can save us. "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." (Acts 4:12). Peter was talking about none other than "Jesus Christ of Nazareth." (Acts 4:10). As a result of this sermon, Peter was forbidden by the council of Jerusalem to preach salvation by Jesus Christ. "And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus." (Acts 4:18). Peter said the Old Testament prophets like Joel had preached Jesus for salvation or remission of sins. "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." (Acts 10:43).

After Christ humbled himself by dying on the cross for our sins, God resurrected Him and exalted him above every name. "Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, (Jehovah) to the glory of God the Father." (Phil. 2:9-11). We find throughout the ministry of the apostle Paul that "...the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified." (Acts 19:17).

One can only be forgiven of sins, "...washed...Sanctified...justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God." (1 Cor. 6:11). "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6). Our Lord Jesus Christ is the only Jehovah who can save your soul. Accept Him as your God today.

Data Processing Programs at KCC

Kirtland Community College will once again be offering two separate Data Processing Programs this fall - a Certificate of Completion and an Associate in Applied Science Degree program.

The Certificate program is directed at people involved in operating a small business, with emphasis on using a microcomputer. The computer programming language BASIC is taught, in addition to exploring various commercially available packaged software. Other fundamental business areas that are covered in the program include Introduction to Business, and Accounting.

The Associate Degree program is directed at persons seeking immediate employment as computer programmers in a business environment, or those interested in transferring to a four-year program. The program prepares students in skills related to the flow of business information at a more detailed level than in the certificate program. Students learn to program on both a microcomputer and mini-computer, using the business oriented languages of Pascal, Cobol, and RPG II. Other areas of study include system analysis, data structures, commercially available software packages, and accounting.

For further information, contact Kathy Marsh, Data Processing Instructor at Kirtland, at 517/275-5121, ext. 265.

Does that make sense?

by Richard Milliman

EVERY TWO YEARS in Michigan voters are asked to take part in one of the least rational electoral processes ever devised — namely, selection of Michigan Supreme Court justices. This is one of those years again.

Michigan's system defies logic. Candidates for the Supreme Court are nominated by partisan convention, then run on a non-partisan ballot. In other words, would-be justices have to be partisan to win nomination, but non-partisan to win election. Does that make sense?

There are a couple of other ways to get on the Supreme Court ballot, which make just as little sense as the partisan nomination process in a non-partisan election.

For example, minor parties can nominate candidates for the non-partisan ballot. Once that is done, these minor-party candidates are on the ballot right alongside the major party, or Democrat and Republican, candidates. Does that make sense?

OR, IF YOU HAVE enough moxie, an individual candidate can form his/her own party, then nominate himself/herself for a seat on the court, and appear on the ballot with equal prominence with Republican, Democrat and minor-party candidates. One justice who did exactly that still serves on the Michigan bench — Justice Charles Levin. But does the system make sense?

About the only sensible way present law now provides for a nominee to appear on the ballot is for an incumbent justice to nominate himself/herself for reelection. One present member of the court, Justice Dennis Archer, already has done that. Justice Archer also will seek, and win, the nomination of the Democratic party as well. Such a move, of course, does make good political sense.

But in the past, major parties have denied endorsement (meaning nomination) to sitting justices they earlier had offered to the people. Former Justice Thomas Giles Kavanaugh was the victim of such party caprice when his Democratic party was unhappy at some of his rulings on apportionment questions. Kavanaugh nominated himself anyway and won reelection; since then, he has been defeated by a Republican-nominated candidate.

THIS YEAR the folly is upon us again. Two justices will be selected by the people in November, including at least one new justice. Justice Archer, who was appointed a few months back by Governor Blanchard, will be running for a full term.

The other seat is currently held by Chief Justice G. Mennen Williams, who is barred by Michigan law from running again because he is past the age of 70, and state law says those who have passed that milestone may not seek a new term as judge anywhere in the state. Does that make sense? Probably not, but it's the law anyway.

So Democrats and Republicans alike will nominate candidates for the Supreme Court at their state party conventions in late August. Then in September and October, these individuals must doff their partisan cloaks and become non-partisan to win election. What a system!

MEANWHILE, something called the Tisch Party already has nominated candidates for the Supreme Court. The Tisch Party anointed Ingham Circuit Judge James E. Kallman and Owosso attorney E. Thomas Fitzgerald as its candidates. These two are assured of ballot spots, without indication that they are splinter party nominees. Does that make sense?

What's a Tisch Party? you may ask. Well, several years back a disgruntled county drain commissioner named Bob Tisch thought he could ride an anti-tax sentiment into political prominence and formed a political party to promote his candidacy for governor. He lost, of course.

But in Michigan's wide-open election law, the Tisch Party survives. It has never won anything, nor has it ever spawned a new idea, yet it exists. And because it exists, it can nominate a judge named Kallman and an attorney named Fitzgerald for Michigan's Supreme Court and their names will be on the ballot with prominence equal to the nominees of the Republicans and Democrats. Does that make sense?

JUDGE KALLMAN, incidentally, also is asking Michigan Republicans for their nomination, and may well win it. Fitzgerald, however, is a strict self-starter, who has failed in at least two other bids to be elected judge of some court or another; he should not be confused with former Supreme Court Justice John Fitzgerald, or several other judges named Fitzgerald here and there around the state, but he will be, of course.

One of the Republican nominations most likely will go to former Sen. Bob Griffin of Traverse City, who ran for the court two years ago, too. The other Democratic nod is up for grabs, but top runners seem to be Dean Robb, another Traverse City attorney, and Robert Weiss, Genesee County prosecutor.

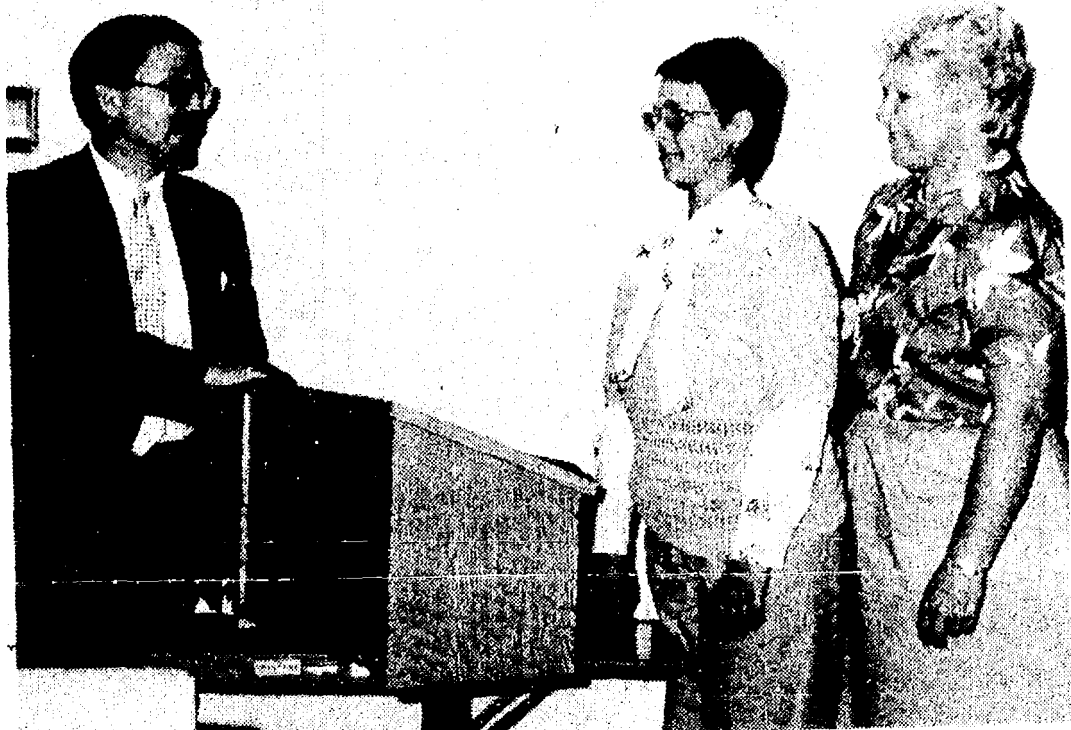

Justice Archer is the only candidate who will have any sort of designation other than his name appear on the ballot. He will be designated as the incumbent. The others all will be listed by name only, without partisan or any other identification.

THERE HAS TO BE a better way to pick Supreme Court justices. In my view, election of judges by statewide vote doesn't make sense. Maybe judicial elections are sound in local, more limited areas, where the voters have more chance to know the candidates and their qualifications. But such knowledge about candidates in a statewide situation is not likely.

For statewide justice positions appointment is much better, perhaps with voter approval or disapproval after a period of performance.

Otherwise, we end up with a statewide electoral grab bag, which is the system as it now operates in Michigan.

Does that make sense? Not to me.

KCC DONATES LECTURE — Dr. Steven Perry, Kirtland's Dean of Executive Management Services, donates a lecture on behalf of the college to Kathleen Moore, Director of Admissions, and Patsy Hardaway, Administrator, of Hilltop Manor in Roscommon. Adkins-Culver Exchange Vows

On July 19, Wilkenson Memorial Park was the setting for the 1:00 p.m. double ring ceremony that united Karen E. Adkins, and Timothy W. Culver in marriage. The Elder Jay Doty officiating.

Mr. Adkins gave his daughter in marriage. She chose a gown with baby ruffles of chantilly-type lace trim on the skirt and chapel-length train. Close fitting bodice with lace-trimmed flounce. The neckline had stand-up collar and sheer illusion-net on front and back yokes. Schiffl embroidery, sequins, and simulated pearls trimmed the front yoke. Pearlized button and loop back closure. The puffed sleeves had lace-trimmed flounces. Venice lace accented the waistline. She wore a headpiece accented with simulated pearls, sequins, and Schiffl embroidery edged with chantilly-type lace to match her gown. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with white baby rose buds and pink baby's breath.

The bride is the daughter of Joel and Doretta Adkins of Gaylord. The bridegroom is the son of Danny Culver of Fenton, and Barbara Culver of Georgia.

Resource Review

by Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

In addition to its well known registration and Personal Flotation Device requirements, the Marine Safety Act (Act 303, 1967) sets forth other water craft rules of which many people are unaware.

Some of these guidelines are referred to as "Rules of the Road" and are similar to rules related to the operation of a motor vehicle.

For example, when two vessels are approaching head on, or nearly so, the vessels shall pass on the port side of each other. Another example is when one vessel is overtaking another, it is to pass on the port side of the first vessel. And when vessels are approaching each other at an angle the vessel which has the other on its starboard side shall yield right-of-way.

(If you have problems understanding what "port" and "starboard" mean, just remember that port and left each have four letters and mean the same while starboard and right both have more than four letters. Hence, if two boats meet at an angle at an imaginary watery intersection, the one on the right has the right-of-way.)

Further, a motor boat shall give way to a vessel which is under sail or powered by other than mechanical means.

Even when a vessel has the right-of-way, the operator must show due regard for the safety of all others using the waters involved.

Grayling Volunteers Needed For VA Clinic

More volunteers from Grayling are needed to help at the VA clinic in Gaylord. The VA clinic was established last October to help veterans in northern Michigan. previously the closest VA hospital for northern Michigan veterans was in Saginaw or Ironwood.

The Grayling clinic has been visited by more than 3,150 veterans so far — more than twice as many as expected. To help with the clerical work at the office, the Grayling Red Cross has coordinated volunteers from Grayling to help work there every Monday.

Currently, Norman and Helen Feldhauser, Louise Feldhauser, Corrine and Bruce Smith, Leo Post, and Marion and Bill Joseph are splitting the work on Mondays. More volunteers are needed to work about one Monday a month at the clinic or fill in on a Monday as a substitute. The volunteers has been working from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Mondays.

For those interested in helping out at the VA clinic in Gaylord, call Bill Joseph, 348-5536, for information.

St. Jude Bike-a-Thon Chairman

The Central Regional Office of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital announced today that Ms. Jean Etson has agreed to chair the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Bike-a-Thon in Grayling.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas. The institution opened its doors to the public in 1962 to combat catastrophic diseases which afflict our children. St. Jude Hospital is non-sectarian, non-discriminatory, and provides total medical care to over 4,200 patients.

At St. Jude, scientists and physicians are working side by side seeking not only a better means of treatment, but also the causes, cures and prevention of these terrible killers.

All findings and information gained at the hospital are shared freely with doctors and hospitals all over the world. Thanks to St. Jude Hospital, children who have leukemia, Hodgkin's disease, sickle-cell anemia, and other child-killing diseases now have a better chance to live.

The Bike-a-Thon program is dedicated to "Jaime". Jaime is from Ohio and was diagnosed with leukemia in May of 1983, and began treatment at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Today, her cancer is in remission and she is doing quite well. Jaime is a living example of the progress and success of the research, patient care, and educational programs of this internationally recognized hospital.

We sincerely appreciate the concern that Ms. Etson has for our work and we hope the citizens of Grayling will support the Bike-a-Thon this fall to help provide the funds that are needed to preserve the world's greatest asset... "Our Children."

Doodles From The Tall Timber

by Wendell L. Hoover,
Park Interpreter

It is not unusual for us to provide feeding stations for birds, and such activities have been promoted by a variety of groups for a long time. Have you considered feeding stations or rather plantings for butterflies? If you are interested, there are three (3) crucial requirements: color, flowers which provide lots of nectar, and those which are easy to feed upon.

Since butterflies appear from early spring through late fall, a butterfly garden should be planted to bloom accordingly. Pussy Willows (Salix caprea), Arabis Rockcress, Lavender (Lavandula), Primrose (Primula), Purple Rock Cress (Aubretia), and Sweet William (Dianthus barbatus) are all good spring time perennials which attract butterflies.

As the days lengthen and warm, flowers such as Gaillardia (blanket flower), Heliotrope, Mignette, Scabiosa (pincushion flower) and Verbena will attract still other butterflies to your garden. Butterfly weed, daisies and wild milkweed are easy-care butterfly bait.

Remember that butterflies migrate just as the birds do, so their needs must be met also. Butterfly bush (Buddleia), Phlox and Summer Glory (Sedum spectabile) are good for late summer and early fall species.

I suspect we seldom consider the fact, but butterflies suffer from loss of habitat just like any other form of wildlife. Their numbers are governed by the amount of food and territory available for both adults and larvae. Just as a flower garden may provide those requirements, an unmowed patch of weeds or an untended fence row will do much the same.

He comes to Reinhardt from the Research and Service Division of Phillips Petroleum Company. There he served as an Organic Petrologist/Associate Biostratigrapher. He has been a research and applied scientist supporting domestic and international oil exploration with a number of energy production firms including Robertson Research (U.S.) Inc., Mobil Oil and others.

Physical Changes

Aging is a natural process that brings about change in both physical appearance and functional efficiency. Physical aging is not simultaneous with chronological aging. There are many factors which influence the rate at which aging progresses.

The biology of the aging process is under intensive investigation. Some investigators believe we are born with a biologic time clock programmed for a specific life span. Many theories have been advanced as to the mechanisms which guide and control the process though they still remain just theories. With the advances being made in genetic and molecular studies, it is now hoped that by the 21st century the rate of aging can at least be influenced.

Perhaps the most generalized complaint the elderly share is how much more easily they tire and how little vitality they seem to have. Less sleep seems to be needed yet frequent rest periods are almost mandatory. Physical changes are due to basic tissue alterations which cause slowing of all the body functions.

Disease increases the intensity and speed of the natural aging process, but it should not be confused with natural progressive changes. Many of the signs of aging can be seen in older people; younger people are aware of some of these same changes beginning with their own bodies.

Aging does not begin at sixty or sixty-five years of age. It is a continuous process, occurring and becoming observable in everyone. There is probably no more beautiful person than one who accepts age and is content with life - a person whose face mirrors the character that experience has fashioned. The aging process is not only a series of losses. There is gain in emotional strength, and throughout life the individual has experienced accommodations. The overall ability of the older body to respond to stress and to recover from injury, is greatly lessened.

Youth Service Bureau

The Youth Service Bureau has completed the seventh week of its summer counseling and recreation program.

Because of the rain on Monday, swimming had to be called off. However group A did have a movie day at the office complete with popcorn. On Tuesday, group B saw a movie in the morning, "Windwalker" and attended a tour of the Grayling Fish Hatchery in the afternoon.

Wednesday, group A took their AuSable River canoe trip. Despite a couple of close calls, Mr. Wilson didn't get wet. On Thursday, group B traveled to Fairview to meet the kids from Oscoda County and had a day camp at Boney Park. They saw the movie Rocky IV, played Croquet, softball, and volleyball. The kids had a great time, but there were a few complaints about the umpire.

Next weeks schedule is, Monday - a day camp at North Higgins Lake State Park (Group A). Tuesday, Swimming at Pine Knoll (Group B). Wednesday, Crawford County Fair (Group A). Thursday, Softball and Hiking at Hartwick Pines State Park. Hope to see you there. We are a United Way Sponsored Agency.

THANK YOU

Thank you to Mr. and Mrs. Loren Goodale, Jr. and their daughter of Goodale's Bakery for putting out my car fire.

Top This For Being Strange

Bob Chubb of Frederic, MI. right.

Dear Mr. Madsen:

I thought perhaps the following may be worthy of publication. If not, be assured that I will not feel slighted.

Due to a rather odd set of circumstances, the Robert Chubb's of Frederic, Wisconsin arrived for a visit with us, the Robert Chubb's of Frederic, Michigan recently.

Apparently, a computer error of a major mail order house, (Montgomery Ward) led to my receiving an invoice last fall for auto repairs completed at their outlet in LaCrosse, WI. Being that I have never visited LaCrosse, let alone having had a car repaired at a Ward's outlet, I immediately challenged the bill. They countered with a rather blurred copy of the original.

Viking Bands Step Out

Did you see them? Weren't they great? Did you see the new green and white band uniform on the Viking Band Boosters' float? Weren't you proud?

If the answer to all these questions was "yes", then get behind the Viking Band Boosters' Uniform Fund Raiser, kicking off August 25.

The success of this year's revitalized band program created a problem: there were not enough uniforms to outfit this summer's marching band. With enthusiasm in the band program at an all time high, the number of band members can only increase. Present uniforms are 13 years old, threadbare, and many of unusable sizes. The varsity marching band this year will stretch uniform supplies to the limit.

Viking Band Boosters hope to raise $30,000 for 100 marching-concert band uniforms, plus a director's uniform, and uniforms for a flag corps and drum major. Further information will be released the week of August 25. If you have any questions at this time please call Diane Branch, after five at 348-4301.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank my family and friends for the support they gave me during practice and during the actual Marathon canoe race. It meant a lot to me to have them follow the race all night and cheer for us.

I especially am grateful to Rick Febey of Rainbow Fitness Center for working with me this summer and for guiding me in proper diet before the marathon. I think this had a lot to do with how I felt during the race.

Sincerely,
Ron Wyman

Here's an amazing football fact... A son and his father were BOTH voted "Coach of the Year" in college football the SAME year! Johnny Majors was voted "Coach of the Year" for major college football in 1973 when he coached Pitt—and his father, Shirley Majors, was voted "Coach of the Year" in small-college football for his coaching at Sewanee that same season.

One of the strangest things that ever happened in baseball was when a batter hit a fly ball that NEVER CAME DOWN... It happened at the indoor Minneapolis Metrodome on May 4, 1984, when Dave Kingman of Oakland hit a high fly ball that got caught in the netting of the fabric ceiling of the dome... The ball stuck there and didn't come down... The umpires decided it was a ground rule double.

Incredibly, a team in the National Football League once played a whole game without gaining ANY yardage!... Seattle, in a game against the Rams in 1979, had an official total of MINUS 7 yards rushing and passing for the entire day... Unbelievable, but true.

I bet you didn't know Plymouth and Dodge have the all new Vista 4 wheel drive station wagon. This car is either front wheel drive or 4 wheel drive. The Vista also has 7 passenger seating and offers 25 miles per gallon. Please see the Dodge Boys at Scheer Motors for a demonstration.

Dear Whitey:

We wish to commend the officers of the City Police and Sheriff's Department for their prompt response to our call for help, a week ago Monday morning at 4:00 a.m.

We woke up to see a man standing about five feet from our bed, at our lake cottage.

The officers did an exceptional job of following up all leads and evidence to the point of making an arrest of the suspect.

They were, at all times, very courteous to us, and appreciative of our experience and aid in descriptions we were able to give them.

We are, indeed, very fortunate to have such a dedicated and efficient law enforcement department.

To The Editor:

I strongly disagree with Mr. Willette's letter to the editor in the July 31, 1986 edition of the Avalanche.

He feels that the new drug testing program at the C.C.T.A. is an invasion of privacy. I believe his stand would be right if it was legal to take these drugs in a person's home, but if I'm not mistaken it is against the law to use unprescribed drugs anywhere, anytime.

As far as nobody having the right to tell you what you can or cannot do, why does he think our representatives are elected (National, State, County, Township, City) for?

Everyday there is a new law being passed to direct the lives of the American people.

I agree that "This whole country is based on freedom". The freedom to choose right from wrong. The right to break the laws of this great country or the right to live within the laws to the best of our abilities.

I'm not a doctor and I do not know all the ramifications of drugs, but I know that I would feel better riding on the busses knowing a driver hasn't taken a substance 10 minutes before (on his own time) going to work.

I will and do support any measures that will lessen the use of illegal drugs be it on the job, in public, at home, or anywhere.

Herluf Moshier

Dear Mr. Madsen:

I have been a resident of Crawford County since 1967 and I have never written a letter to this paper, been in jail, been without a job, or a good friend, but I have on several occasions been forced to pay hard earned money for below code level housing.

In a recent court case in which I was fighting for repair work to be done on the house I was renting, the judge claimed to have no legal precedence to make or even suggest to the landlady to fix up her house in which people live under hazardous health conditions.

During the above mentioned court case the Grayling Housing Commission was asked to make an unbiased inspection of the house. A two page summary of that inspection was submitted to the court stating several housing code violations, but this same judge claimed that a piece of paper was not conclusive enough, and a judgement was made that the landlady was in no way responsible to make her home safe and should continue to get rent money each month even though the lives of the people who pay this money each month is in constant jeopardy.

If a judge, with all his eminent jurisdiction, has no authority to keep homes safe in his community and the Housing Commission, who's alleged credibility is not substantial enough to hold up in a court of law, then I would like to know exactly who it is in this community that renters in the same situation can turn to for honest and conclusive assistance.

Sincerely,
A Concerned Tax Payer
and Citizen

Scotty and Ione Wylie of Crystal Lake and Florida are spending several weeks camping in the Grayling area.

Ada (nee Wylie) Skinner has just moved to a retirement home, Cumberland Manor on Fulton Avenue in Lowell, Michigan. She might enjoy a card from some of her former friends.

Atkinson Reunion

Woods Water Fish

by Barnie Engel

The 27th Atkinson Reunion was held on Sunday, July 27, 1986 at Sanford Lake. It was another beautiful day for 75 descendants who came from all directions.

The youngest was Kristie Rae Leubs, Kentwood. The oldest was Dick Woodbury, Midland. Traveling the farthest were Alice and Bud Taylor, Ocala, Fla., their son, Don and Sharon and children, Gainesville, Fla., and their daughters, Sandy Brewer and daughter, Danvers, Mass. Others from out of state were Kay and Bill Kern and son, Barberton, Ohio. Our complete family belonged to Grace and Taylor Langstaff, with son Taylor, daughter Carla Maxim and Dale and children, all from the Bay City area. Our largest family present belonged to Ross Atkinson with 13, all from Bay City.

Since our last reunion in '85, we had 2 members deceased. We fondly remember Ruth Atkinson and Erwin Weggel, Bay City. We want to thank Peggy and Tom Leubs, Kentwood and Barbara and Curt Bedbury, Midland, for a fine job done as Committee in charge of this reunion.

Committee '87 will be Nancy Leubs and Scott Reif, both from Bay City. Our young people are picking up where some of the older ones left off...that is what makes the reunions go on.

Attending from Grayling were Clara and Robert Sorenson, daughter Nancy Cox, granddaughter, Elissa Cox.

Being Too Comfortable

It is sometimes good to be uncomfortable. Being content in all situations and surroundings could denote a lack of growth.

Learning is an ageless avocation, and to be eager to learn could require some hours of being uncomfortable, like homework for a youngster is often for them a very unpopular task, although necessary if they are to learn and grow to maturity.

Those "satisfied with everything like it is" rarely contribute to new creations or accept challenges that help their fellowman.

Making sure that their mundane way of life is not upset means not "rocking the boat" or "making waves," in other words, not getting involved.

Stronger, more creative, venturesome and alert people get interested in others. They want to know more about the world in which they live, and yes, about the eternal life.

They want visions of truth, for they know that one day they must move from this planet, and are eager to hear about a future life. That's why they go to Church. They know there are people there on the same search, and that there are learned men and women of the cloth to help them.

Now You Can Vote Again!

For those of you who gave up your rights to vote to avoid your civic duties of serving on a jury, we have both good news and bad news.

The good news is that the voters registration list will no longer be used to draw the prime list of jurors.

The bad news is, that starting next year, the jury prime list will be drawn from a list of drivers licenses that will be furnished by the State License Bureau.

Avoiding being called for jury duty will only be done by not driving.

RSVP Reports

We certainly appreciate all the help we have received from our volunteers that have helped us at the rest area. Your donations of cookies or money to purchase them, have really helped us in our expenses. We have had some generous donations, and this will help us meet our match in this new grant year.

We are looking forward to this busy week in both Crawford and Roscommon County as the County Fairs have our volunteers participating in the festivities.

We are selling tickets for a beautiful quilt made by Verna Gunderson and quilted by Verna Gunderson, Vi Hohner, Irene Friebe and Hattie Kenyon. The drawing will be September 4th. We will have it on display at both Fairs.

Volunteers are needed to substitute for meals on wheels drivers in both counties. Also volunteers are needed for the St. Helen Chamber of Commerce office.

To those of you who are not RSVP volunteers, the only criteria for membership is that you be 60 years of age. We have something for you. Give our offices a call, Crawford County 348-4341 or 348-8322 and Roscommon County 366-5613.
